

BENEFITS OF HAVING A WEBSITE

BENEFITS

- In this digital era, having a digital presence is very important. Locals, as well as those from other cities, districts, and provinces, whether national or worldwide, can obtain information about the school.
- Online admission of students can be taken from website.
- Online fee payment system through esewa/khalti/fonepay can be integrated through website.
- Notices, announcements, contact details, online study mater can be easily shared through website.
- Online entrance form of +2 students can be obtained from website.
- Student's results (entrance + class wise) can be published from website.
- School's achievements, events and other memos related to various activies can be added to website.